2. Apply as soon as possible after January 1.
3. Be sure to sign your FAFSA electronically using your FSA ID (username and password). See electronic versions at www.cmu.edu/finaid/basics/undergraduate/applying.html (RECOMMENDED) for creating an FSA ID. |
| IRS Tax Return Transcript Request                                         | April 15            | We recommend requesting your transcript online. To request a transcript, go to www.cmu.edu/finaid/applying.html. | If you and your parents are selected for federal verification as indicated on your Student Aid Report (document you receive after filing your FAFSA), then you’re required to request an IRS Tax Return Transcript. |
| 2016-2017 CSS PROFILE (required in order to receive consideration for institutional financial aid. Institutional Code: 2074) | February 15         | Complete the CSS PROFILE online at https://profileonline.collegeboard.com. If you don’t have a College Board online account, you’ll need to create one in order to register for the PROFILE. Carnegie Mellon receives your PROFILE data electronically from CSS, so there’s no need to send copies or printouts. | 1. Carnegie Mellon’s CSS College Code is 2074.
2. As soon as you decide which schools you’re applying to, you should register for PROFILE Online. This should be two weeks before the earliest college deadline, at minimum.
3. Have your tax returns and financial documents available. You’ll also be charged an application fee of $9 and an additional $16 for each college.
4. Be sure to print the acknowledgement upon completion of the PROFILE and print a copy of the PROFILE for your own reference. |
| 2016-2017 CSS Noncustodial PROFILE (only required if your parents are divorced or separated in order to receive consideration for institutional financial aid. Institutional Code: 2074) | February 15         | Complete the CSS Noncustodial PROFILE (NCP) online at https://ncprofile.collegeboard.com. The student’s CSS ID and Noncustodial PROFILE password that were assigned to you as part of the CSS PROFILE process will be needed to sign in to the NCP. Carnegie Mellon receives your Noncustodial PROFILE electronically from CSS, so there’s no need to send copies or printouts. | 1. We don’t require 1040s or any tax information from the noncustodial parent.
2. There’s a $25 fee for the CSS Noncustodial PROFILE, regardless of the number of colleges requiring the information. |
| 2015 Tax Returns & W-2 Forms                                              | February 15         | Carnegie Mellon uses the College Board Institutional Documentation Service (IDOC). Once you have filed your CSS PROFILE, you will receive a letter and cover sheet from the College Board. Applicants can submit tax forms and any other supplemental forms required in one of three ways:
1. Upload electronic versions at www.cmu.edu/finaid/basics/undergraduate/applying.html (RECOMMENDED)
2. Courier delivery to: College Board Processing Center, 124 Heritage Ave., Ste. #14, Portsmouth, NH 03801
3. US Postal Service to: College Board Processing Center, P.O. Box 8570, Portsmouth, NH 0380202 | 1. Parents and students should submit signed copies of all pages and schedules of their 2015 federal tax returns and W-2s. If you were required to complete Partnership Schedule K-1 from Form 1065 and/or Form 2555 (Foreign Earned Income), these should also be submitted.
2. You’re required to submit all requested documents in one IDOC packet. Do not send documents separately.
3. If you or your parents are required to file an Income Tax Return in a country other than the U.S., you must provide us a copy of your foreign tax return and provide tax information translated into U.S. dollars on a U.S. tax return. This translated tax return must be signed by you and the tax accountant who translated your income. |
| Additional Information                                                     | February 15         | If your family has special circumstances, fax a letter detailing these circumstances to 412.268.7838. |                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
